History

Welcome to the ol' prospector's home away from home. A refuge for the lonely miner to "eat, drink, gossip, sleep, dance, gamble, have gold assayed, exchange news, get a haircut, attend church services, weddings, or funerals, file claims, vote..."; a place to be with others under the same circumstances.

You may have seen Tom's Baby, a 13lb. 7 oz gold nugget, being paraded around wrapped up in a blanket or saw Montezuma's madam, Dixie, cruising around after cheering her Montezuma team on at the town baseball game or even May Nicholson, one of Breckenridge's madams, selling milk after the gold panned out.

The Gold Pan Saloon has a long and colorful history one can only imagine when they step through the swinging doors and gaze around.
